Attorney General Griffin Announces Conviction of Arkadelphia Woman for Failure to Report Adult Maltreatment

Griffin: 'Reporting abuse isn't just a professional duty, it's a moral one'

LITTLE ROCK – Attorney General Tim Griffin today issued the following statement announcing the conviction of an Arkadelphia woman for failure to report adult maltreatment:

“On June 24, Kanita Williams, 49, of Arkadelphia was found guilty of one count of failure to report adult maltreatment, a Class B misdemeanor. She was sentenced to 90 days’ probation, ordered to pay a $500 fine with $250 of the fine suspended, and added to the Adult Maltreatment Registry. Williams, a Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) and mandated reporter at the Arkadelphia Human Development Center, witnessed a fellow CNA physically abuse a resident. Williams was terminated from the Arkadelphia Human Development Center after failing to report the abuse.

“My office will not sit by and tolerate the abuse or neglect of our most vulnerable. Reporting abuse isn’t just a professional duty, it’s a moral one. We all have a responsibility to protect those who cannot protect themselves. I commend the exceptional work of our Medicaid Fraud Control Unit (MFCU) for their continued commitment to protecting Arkansans. And I especially thank Special Agent Laura Glover, Assistant Attorneys General Gabrielle Davis-Jones and David Jones, as well as the Prosecuting Attorney for the 9th Judicial District of Arkansas, Dan Turner.”

The Arkansas MFCU receives 75% of its funding from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services under a grant totaling $4,685,736 for the Federal fiscal year 2025, of which $3,514,304 is federally funded. The remaining 25%, totaling $1,171,432 for State Fiscal Year 2025, is funded by Arkansas General Revenue.
