Attorney General Griffin Announces Arrest of Grant County Man on Child Pornography Charges

Griffin: 'My office will not waver in its commitment to bringing these perpetrators to justice and protecting our most vulnerable population'

LITTLE ROCK – Attorney General Tim Griffin today issued the following statement after agents in his Special Investigations Division (SID) arrested Mark Allen Cagle, 62, of Grant County on 20 felony counts of distributing, possessing, or viewing matter depicting sexually explicit conduct involving a minor:

“This morning, special agents from my office arrested Cagle following an investigation thanks to a cybertip from the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children (NCMEC). On November 4, special agents from SID served a search warrant on Cagle’s residence in Grant County, where evidence was seized for forensic examination. After the forensic examination, a warrant was obtained, and Cagle was arrested. He was booked into the Sheridan Detention Center, where he is currently being held on a $500,000 bond.

“I am thankful for the tip from NCMEC that led to this arrest and for the valuable assistance of the Grant County Sheriff’s Office in this case. My office will not waver in its commitment to bringing these perpetrators to justice and protecting our most vulnerable population.”

If you believe you or someone you know is a victim of exploitation, call the NCMEC CyberTipline at (800) 422-4453 or visit <https://report.cybertip.org>.
