North Little Rock Man Pleads Guilty to Production of Child Sexual Abuse Materials and Sentenced to 27 Years in Federal Prison

Griffin: 'My office remains unwavering in its commitment to seeking justice for these victims and protecting our most vulnerable population'

LITTLE ROCK – Attorney General Tim Griffin today issued the following statement announcing a guilty plea entered by Troy Moseley III, 26, of North Little Rock on one count of the production of Child Sexual Abuse Materials (CSAM):

“On September 28, 2023, my Special Investigations Division executed a search warrant at Moseley’s home after receiving a cybertip from the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children. We seized electronic devices, and forensic analysis revealed over 100 photo and video files containing CSAM. Moseley was arrested and charged with 30 counts of distributing, possessing, or viewing of matter depicting sexually explicit conduct involving a child. We provided that evidence to the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Arkansas.

“On November 8, 2023, a federal grand jury indicted Moseley on one count of production of CSAM, one count of distribution of CSAM, and one count of possession of CSAM. On July 22, 2025, Moseley pleaded guilty to the production of CSAM. Earlier this week, United States District Judge Lee P. Rudofsky sentenced Moseley to 27 years in federal prison and 10 years of supervised release. Moseley will be ineligible for parole in the federal system.

“I am grateful to my Special Investigations Division for their tireless work on this case and to the North Little Rock Police Department, the U.S. Marshals Service, and the Pulaski County Sheriff’s Office for their assistance in the arrest. I especially want to thank United States Attorney Jonathan D. Ross and Assistant United States Attorney Kristin Bryant for prosecuting this case. My office remains unwavering in its commitment to seeking justice for these victims and protecting our most vulnerable population. Those who exploit children will be held accountable for their crimes. This conviction ensures that one more perpetrator is off the streets and behind bars, where they can no longer cause harm. We will continue to pursue these cases relentlessly and ensure they face the full consequences of their actions.”

About Attorney General Tim Griffin

Tim Griffin was sworn in as the 57th Attorney General of Arkansas on January 10, 2023, having previously served as the state’s 20th Lieutenant Governor from 2015-2023.
