Attorney General Griffin Announces Conviction of Cabot Man for Possession of Child Sexual Abuse Materials

Griffin: 'We will not let up in our pursuit of justice, and we will continue in our commitment to protecting children'

LITTLE ROCK – Attorney General Tim Griffin issued the following statement announcing the conviction of Blake Seaton, 22, of Cabot after Seaton pled guilty to 30 counts of pandering or possessing visual or print medium depicting sexually explicit conduct involving a child:

“Agents in my office arrested Blake Seaton back in October, and this week he pled guilty to all 30 counts of possessing child sexual abuse materials (CSAM), which are C felonies. Seaton will serve 15 years in the Arkansas Department of Corrections.

“Criminals may think they can download or share this despicable material without consequence, but they’re wrong. We will not let up in our pursuit of justice, and we will continue in our commitment to protecting children.

“I am grateful for my Special Investigations Division for their excellent work investigating this case and for my Special Prosecutions Division, which prosecuted the case.”

About Attorney General Tim Griffin

Tim Griffin was sworn in as the 57th Attorney General of Arkansas on January 10, 2023, having previously served as the state’s 20th Lieutenant Governor from 2015-2023. From 2011-2015,
