Attorney General Griffin Announces Conviction of Trumann Woman for Medicaid Fraud

Griffin: 'This case demonstrates that those who engage in Medicaid fraud, submit false claims, and exploit vulnerable beneficiaries can face serious consequences, including prison time'

LITTLE ROCK – Attorney General Tim Griffin issued the following statement announcing the conviction of a Trumann woman on two counts of Medicaid fraud:

“On May 4, Brandi Davis, 41, of Trumann, pleaded guilty to one count of Medicaid Fraud, a Class A felony, and one count of Medicaid Fraud, a Class B felony. Last week, she was sentenced to two years in the Arkansas Department of Corrections and an additional eight years of suspended imposition of sentence following her time served. Davis will also have to pay $74,579.88 in restitution. Davis worked for 1st Choice Home Care in both caregiver and administrative roles. While serving in an administrative capacity, she created a fictitious employee profile for her son and used it to bill Medicaid for personal care services that were never provided. While serving as a caregiver, Davis conspired with the guardian of two minor Medicaid beneficiaries, who approved fraudulent timesheets for services that did not occur. In return for the guardian’s participation in the scheme, Davis paid the guardian kickbacks.

“This case demonstrates that those who engage in Medicaid fraud, submit false claims, and exploit vulnerable beneficiaries can face serious consequences, including prison time. I commend the exceptional work done on this case by Special Agent Laura Glover and Assistant Attorney General Gabrielle Davis-Jones of my Medicaid Fraud Control Unit (MFCU). I am also grateful for the assistance of Sixth Judicial District Prosecutor Will Jones in this case.”

The Arkansas MFCU receives 75% of its funding from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services under a grant totaling $4,781,516 for the Federal fiscal year 2026, of which $3,586,140 is federally funded. The remaining 25%, totaling $1,195,376 for the State fiscal year 2026, is funded by Arkansas General Revenue.
