Attorney General Griffin Announces Arrest of Siloam Springs Woman for Exploitation of a Vulnerable Person

Griffin: ‘Serving as a trustee is a position of trust, and my office will continue to investigate and prosecute those who abuse that trust and exploit vulnerable Arkansans’

LITTLE ROCK – Attorney General Tim Griffin issued the following statement announcing the arrest of a Siloam Springs woman for exploitation of a vulnerable person:

“On July 6, Stephania Beard, 52, of Siloam Springs, was arrested on one count of Exploitation of a Vulnerable Person, a Class B felony. While serving as trustee over her father’s financial accounts, Beard spent more than $60,000 on personal expenses rather than for the victim. Those expenditures included streaming subscriptions, inmate phone services, inmate commissary deposits, restaurant orders, and retail store purchases.

“Serving as a trustee is a position of trust, and my office will continue to investigate and prosecute those who abuse that trust and exploit vulnerable Arkansans. I commend the exceptional work done on this case by Special Agent Brandon Muldrow of my Medicaid Fraud Control Unit (MFCU). I am also grateful for the assistance of Fourth Judicial District Prosecutor Brandon Carter in this case.”

The Arkansas MFCU receives 75% of its funding from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services under a grant totaling $4,781,516 for the Federal fiscal year 2026, of which $3,586,140 is federally funded. The remaining 25%, totaling $1,195,376 for the State fiscal year 2026, is funded by Arkansas General Revenue.

About Attorney General Tim Griffin

Tim Griffin was sworn in as the 57th Attorney General of Arkansas on January 10, 2023, having previously served as the state's 20th Lieutenant Governor from 2015-2023.
