Attorney General Griffin Announces Arrest of Carlisle Woman for Exploitation of an Impaired or Endangered Adult

Griffin: 'Every Arkansan deserves to know their loved ones are safe from financial exploitation while in the care of a nursing facility'

LITTLE ROCK – Attorney General Tim Griffin issued the following statement announcing the arrest of a Carlisle woman for exploitation of an impaired or endangered adult:

“On July 29, Traci Wagner, 45, of Carlisle, was arrested on 28 counts of Exploitation of an Impaired or Endangered Adult, including 22 Class C felonies and six Class B felonies. While serving as business manager at Barnes Healthcare, a nursing home in Lonoke, Wagner printed checks from residents’ accounts, endorsed them, and then cashed them.

“Every Arkansan deserves to know their loved ones are safe from financial exploitation while in the care of a nursing facility. I commend the outstanding work done on this case by Special Agent Matthew Edwards of my Medicaid Fraud Control Unit (MFCU). I am also grateful for the assistance of Twenty-Third Judicial District Prosecuting Attorney Chuck Graham in this case.”

The Arkansas MFCU receives 75% of its funding from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services under a grant totaling $4,781,516 for the Federal fiscal year 2026, of which $3,586,140 is federally funded. The remaining 25%, totaling $1,195,376 for the State fiscal year 2026, is funded by Arkansas General Revenue.
