Attorney General Griffin Announces Arrest of North Little Rock Man for Medicaid Fraud

Griffin: 'My office will continue to hold accountable those who exploit vulnerable individuals and defraud the Medicaid program that so many Arkansans rely upon'

LITTLE ROCK – Attorney General Tim Griffin issued the following statement announcing the arrest of Marcus Jones, 31, of North Little Rock, for Medicaid fraud:

“On September 30, Jones was charged with Medicaid fraud, a Class A felony. The Office of the Medicaid Inspector General referred this case to my Medicaid Fraud Control Unit (MFCU) after Jones allegedly submitted claims to Medicaid totaling $245,401.60 for services that were not rendered and billed for excessive hours in a day.

“Taking advantage of vulnerable Arkansans for personal gain is unacceptable. My office will continue to hold accountable those who exploit vulnerable individuals and defraud the Medicaid program that so many Arkansans rely upon. I want to thank Special Agent Laura Glover and Senior Assistant Attorney General Gabrielle Davis-Jones for their exceptional job on this case. I am also grateful for the assistance of Sixth Judicial District Prosecuting Attorney Will Jones in this case.”

The Arkansas MFCU receives 75% of its funding from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services under a grant totaling $4,781,516 for the Federal fiscal year 2026, of which $3,586,140 is federally funded. The remaining 25%, totaling $1,195,376 for the State fiscal year 2026, is funded by Arkansas General Revenue.

About Attorney General Tim Griffin

Tim Griffin was sworn in as the 57th Attorney General of Arkansas on January 10, 2023, having previously served as the state's 20th Lieutenant Governor from 2015-2023.
