Information for the Arkansas Historic Preservation Program

The Arkansas Historic Preservation Program is interested in collecting as much information as possible about the lives of the farm families who have played such a vital role in Arkansas's development. Responses to the following questions are welcomed and encouraged but are not required for Arkansas Century Farm certification.

How many acres were in the original parcel?

Where was/were the original owner(s) born?

Where did he/she live before moving to Arkansas? Why and when did they move to Arkansas?

Did the first owner farm the land?

What crops or livestock were raised on the land a century ago?

Please provide additional information about important events and activities occurring on the farm that may be valuable to historians. Additional pages may be attached.
