Arkansas Department of Agriculture Now Accepting Applications for Arkansas Century Farm Program

LITTLE ROCK, AR – The Arkansas Department of Agriculture is accepting applications for the Arkansas Century Farm Program until June 30, 2025. This program honors Arkansas families who have owned and farmed the same land for at least 100 years, recognizing their contributions to the state’s agricultural heritage.

Established in 2012, the Arkansas Century Farm Program highlights the historical significance of Arkansas farm families and their lasting impact on the state’s agriculture industry. The program is voluntary, and there is no cost to apply. Since its inception, 645 farms have been inducted.

To qualify, Arkansas farms must meet the following criteria:

- The same family must have owned the farm for at least 100 years by December 31, 2025. Ownership may pass through generations, including children, grandchildren, siblings, and nephews or nieces – by birth, marriage, or adoption.
- The farm must include at least 10 acres of the original land acquisition and make a financial contribution to the overall farm income.

Qualifying farms will receive a personalized Arkansas Century Farm certificate and metal sign listing the farm name and year established.

Completed applications must be submitted here by June 30, 2025, to be eligible for the 2025 induction. For more information or assistance with the application process, please contact Beth Moore at beth.moore@agriculture.arkansas.gov or (501) 539-4027.

The Arkansas Department of Agriculture is dedicated to the development and implementation of policies and programs for Arkansas agriculture, forestry, and natural resources conservation to keep its farmers and ranchers competitive in national and international markets while sustaining natural resources and ensuring safe food, fiber, and forest products for the citizens of the state and nation. The Arkansas Department of Agriculture offers its programs to all eligible persons regardless of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability and is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
