What is the OJT/SS Program?

The On-the-Job Training Supportive Services (OJT/SS) Program is a program of the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA), that assists State Transportation Agencies (STAs) in the development and enhancement of their job training and apprenticeship programs using Federal assisted funds. OJT/SS complements the FHWA On-the-Job Training Program and was created to increase the pool of qualified individuals in the highway construction industry.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

- Develop outreach services in order to increase participation in the highway construction industry.
- Provide highway construction hands-on training programs to increase the level of skills needed in the highway construction industry for trainees.
- Provide skills training aimed at increasing the overall participation of trainees in the highway constructions industry .
- Provide resources for the trainees who participate in the program.
- Ensure equal opportunity exists in the highway construction industry.
- Certify trainees after completing the program with the skillset of a trained classification.
